UNSTOPPABLE CATALYST

When you are casting a spell and another creature is attempting to resist it with Constitution save success, you can choose to ignore the creature's save. If the creature's Constitution save succeeds, the creature takes double damage equal to the spell level of the spell you are casting.

It costs 50 emblems. They are craftable. Run random dungeons, get emblems and spend them on stuff. If you're desperate for a high-level cloak, Hammerhead Sharkskin Cloak, again, isn't optimally stated, but it only costs 25 emblems and should hold you over until you can get a raid drop or save up for the Wintergrasp cloak. It should suffice just fine for your needs until you get a better raid drop. In fact, if you don't need hit rating, it edges out the Spiked Battleguard Choker, Tapestry of the Frozen Throne, from the Captain's Chest at the end of normal Halls of Reflection is an excellent cloak choice, especially if you need some extra hit rating. Rare crafted resilience sets Each set uses the same eight slots: chest, feet, hands, head, legs, shoulder, waist and wrist. If you can find them relatively cheap or have money to burn, consider buying a set of Spiked Titansteel Treads to hold you until better gear drops. The Needle-Encrusted Scorpion is a passable trinket for a DPS death knight. The Mark of Supremacy is a good gearing option if you can't hit 8% hit rating yet. Each set uses the same eight slots: chest, feet, hands, head, legs, shoulder, waist, wrist. If you buy something through one of these links, we may earn an affiliate commission.Popular on Engadget Every class (excluding death knights, who do not have a dungeon set) has "dungeon", "raid" and "PvP" equipment sets available to them. Technically, all Dungeon 1 and all Dungeon 3 sets are non-class sets, as they don't have a class requirement. Each set occupied the same three slots: chest, hands and wrist. Each set uses the same five slots: chest, hands, head, legs, and shoulder. These tokens are dropped in the Dragon Soul. Luckily, we have some guides just for that. Here's a guide to the good stuff. Let's give you a few tips and a list of gear to shoot for to get you in top pre-raid shape.Nailing your spec All the gear in the world won't do you much good if you don't have your technique worked out. The Normal version is purchased with gold and Class Tokens (Staghelm and Ragnaros), the heroic version is purchasable with heroic class token plus normal version. The Banner of Victory comes from the Confessor's Cache in normal Trial of the Champion and is a pretty passable trinket for the physical damage heavy blood and unholy specs. 2H Weapons 1H Weapons Welcome to Lichborne, the weekly class column on the newest WoW class, the death knight, where we discuss PUG etiquette and Emblem of Triumph gear for the death knight, 5-man Icecrown dungeon gear and basic death knight statistics and mechanics. Raid tier sets Tier 11 - This set has a Normal and Heroic version. It drops off the Black Knight in normal Trial of the Champion. World of Warcraft: The Burning Crusade (level 30) Uncommon crafted sets The following sets are craftable. It comes from the Devourer of Souls from heroic Forge of Souls. The Minister's Number One Legplates off Bronjahm in normal Forge of Souls are a good solid option for your legs. They are as follows: Anti-Scourge sets The following sets were available to fight the second Scourge Invasion, shortly before the launch of WotLK. Another look at gearing Now that we've looked at the raw data of what drops, it's time to get down to the nitty-gritty of what really works. They are class-restricted, thus can only be worn by the listed classes. This list will give you a basic rundown of what to shoot for as you gear up, in order from most powerful to least power. Raid tier sets World of Warcraft: Cataclysm (level 32) Cataclysm Raid Sets PvP gear sets Dungeon sets There were no new dungeon sets released with Cataclysm. Trinkets If you can afford it, a strength-based Darkmoon Card: Greatness is still a pretty amazing trinket going into raid content. Set Armor class Slots Profession Type Netherweave Vestments Cloth Chest, Feet, Hands, Legs, Waist, Wrist Tailoring Magical Thick Draenic Armor Leather Chest, Feet, Hands, Legs Leatherworking Physical Wild Draenish Armor Leather Chest, Feet, Hands, Legs Leatherworking Magical Felscale Armor Mail Chest, Feet, Hands, Legs Leatherworking Physical Scale Draenic Armor Mail Chest, Feet, Hands, Legs Leatherworking Magical Fel Iron Chain Mail Chest, Head, Hands, Wrist Blacksmithing Physical Fel Iron Plate Plate Chest, Feet, Hands, Legs, Waist Blacksmithing Physical Rare crafted sets The following sets are craftable. Once you have that sorted out, you're going to want to make sure you're getting the hang of the more subtle nuances of successful death knight DPSing. Cloak Due to a dearth of good non-raid cloak drops for plate DPS, you may want to run Wintergrasp enough times to afford a Titan-Forged Cloak of Victory. All non-class sets give extra bonuses when wearing multiple pieces of the set. Here's a guide to those drops, written back before 6 Emblems of Triumph were in existance and before the new dungeons, but still full of stop-gaps until you can get a better, especially if you don't have the gear to queue for better dungeons. Boots Your best pre-raid option, Grimning Skull Boots, will come from the Captain's Cache at the end of heroic Halls of Reflection. However, some sets, including all Dungeon 1 and some Dungeon 3 sets, are aimed at specific classes due to the bonuses on the sets. The Normal version is purchased with gold and Class Tokens (Nefarian's End and Cho'gall), the heroic version is purchasable with heroic class token plus normal version. All versions are available through tokens dropped by Warlord Zon'ozz (Hands), Yor'sahj the Unspeaking (Legs), Hagara the Stormbinder (Shoulder), Ultraxion (Chest) and Warmaster Blackhorn (Head), but the heroic version is purchasable with heroic class token plus normal version. Our Class 101 guides will not only give you talent spec guidance, but guidance on stat priorities, gems, enchants and glyphs. While you may not get a whole bunch of Emblems of Frost just starting out, it can't hurt to look ahead, so here's a guide to Emblem of Frost gear. This will focus primarily on emblems and five-player dungeon rewards, since we'll assume that's what you're focusing on, though you may be able to get into a Vault or Onyxia PUG from time to time. Legs Tier 9 once again reigns supreme here. World of Warcraft: Mists of Pandaria (level 35) MoP Raid Sets PvP gear sets Dungeon sets There were no new dungeon sets released with Mists of Pandaria. Tier 12 - This set has a Normal and Heroic version. If you're lucky, you've saved up a few Emblems of Triumph from random dungeon finder runs -- but for now, you're new, you're only halfway geared and you want to start running the dungeon finder as soon as possible so you can see the Lich King die before Cataclysm hits. Quest sets The only quest set so far is the Twilight Trappings set. Drape of the Undefeated, from the Black Knight in normal Trial of the Champion, is a decent dungeon death knight statted cloak option. There's still some treasure to be had here, and if you want to dig down deep and get a good overview of what to look for in each dungeon, you'll want to read these. Once you start getting into raids, you will get better drops in many cases, but for now, focus on trying to get the top one or two choices in each of these categories. World of Warcraft: Wrath of the Lich King (level 30) Uncommon crafted sets The following sets are craftable. There are not many solid awesome pre-heroic boot options for plate DPS, so you may end up wanting to blow 40 emblems on Bladed Steelboots if you get desperate. That essentially means you'll want to grab full tier 9, then top off your gear with various choices from the Icecrown five-player dungeons and Trial of the Champion. It costs 40 emblems. They are designed for players at or near level 30. Any class that is qualified to wear the armor type can wear the set. Essentially, you'll want to get as much of your gear up to item level 232 as possible in order to get a decent chance at surviving and thriving in Icecrown Citadel. Most of the really good drops will come out of the Icecrown 5-player dungeons. This armor set is associated with Bastion of Twilight and Blackwing Descent. World of Warcraft (level 30) PvP gear sets Dungeon sets Both original sets are no longer obtainable since patch 4.0.3a, but their replicas can be bought on Darkmoon Faire since patch 4.3.0. The Purloined Wedding Ring from Ick in normal Pit of Saron is a decent start for a death knight DPS ring, though the haste is less than optimal for most. The Bent Gold Belt off Ick in Normal Pit of Saron is not optimally statted for a death knight, but it's likely better than what you had before. Where Emblem of Triumph gear doesn't quite suffice, you'll need to fill in the gaps with dungeon drops. They drop from Eadric or Paletress in heroic Trial of the Champion. When you're running your daily random heroic, you may run across loot drops that will do you quite well until you can replace them with drops from one of the newer dungeons or from emblems. This armor set is associated with Firelands. If all else fails, buy some cheap Berseker's Sabatons. Armor sets were not present in Battle for Azeroth, their function being fulfilled by Azerite Armor. Luckily, we've covered some stuff that should help already: Gearing guide overview We've done gearing guides before here on Lichborne, so I'm going to go back over those real quick. So you've just dinged level 80. Remember: As you gear and gem up, keep in mind your stat priorities from the 101 guides, especially in regards to getting 8% hit.Head Shoulders Chest Wrist Gloves Belt The Belt of the Singing Blade only costs 28 emblems and should serve you well until you get a better raid drop. They returned in Shadowlands patch 9.2. These armor sets can be obtained as drops from certain bosses in the Sepulcher of the First Ones, from any activities that normally grant Great Vault rewards (raids, Mythic's dungeons, or PvP), or by crafting them in the Creation Catalyst. Theoretically, these sets benefit the activity one engages in to acquire them: PvP sets are best in PvP situations, raid sets in raid situations, etc., but some players have found it more beneficial to mix and match. They are designed for advanced level 30 players. The Mirror of Truth is another option for you if you don't like the armor penetration on the banner or just don't want to bother with running normal Trial of the Champin. Legplates of Relentless Onslaught beat out the Minister's legplates if only because of the gem slot, assuming you don't need the hit rating. The Lady's Promise from the Captain's Chest in heroic Halls of Reflection is a very well statted death knight ring and worth shooting for. Each set uses the same three slots: feet, waist and shoulders. You'll want Koltira's or Thassarian's Legplates of Conquest before you make a serious attempt at ICC. Some of our stories include affiliate links. Sets by class Non-class sets Non-class sets are not restricted by class. You may also be able to pull some decent gear out of the Trial of the Crusader.
