Team 1 2 3 Score EDM 0 0 1 1 FLA 2 1 2 5 Florida won the game at odds of -154. The total score of 6 pushed the pre-game total of 6. This page displays every game for every week of the NHL season - your ideal starting point for wagering. We present all imminent matchups for the day, supplemented by real-time scores and results as they transpire. Before the games, bettors can review the odds for each matchup, and upon game completion, we present you with the totals, separated by period. What are the main types of bets for NHL matchups? Once you've decided on your bets, you can utilize our NHL odds comparison tool to find the most advantageous lines at legal sportsbooks and betting sites in your locality. Here, you can observe the odds for each game's puck line, moneyline, and total. Betting on the puck line entails choosing the expected score difference between the teams. Wagering on the moneyline implies predicting the winning team. Over/Under or Totals betting involves predicting if the total points scored in a game would exceed or fall short of a projected value. Clicking on a game introduces you to NHL player props and odds. Why use Covers NHL Scoreboard/Covers NHL scoreboard? Our reliable odds are sourced directly from the leading NHL betting sites, and the matchup pages offer a plethora of odds and statistics for every NHL game. Whether you're betting on Stanley Cup odds or spotting a promising game for new sportsbook promo, this page is your springboard! How frequently is the NHL scoreboard updated? Our live scores update as events occur, and our pre-game odds receive an update every five minutes, providing you with the freshest betting odds for imminent NHL games. How are NHL matchups scheduled? NHL matchups are scheduled by the National Hockey League, where each of the 32 teams plays 82 games in a season; they play a mix of games within their division, outside their division but within their conference, and against teams from the other conference. Post-regular season, the top-performing teams advance to the Stanley Cup Playoffs. How do injuries affect NHL matchups and betting odds? Injuries can significantly impact NHL matchups and betting odds. If key players are injured, it can weaken a team's performance, potentially swaying the odds in favor of the healthier team. What's the average score of the NHL game? The average score of an NHL game tends to be around 5.5 total goals, with normal scores ranging from 2-1 to 4-3 for either team.
